

EX-QUEEN WELCOMED
Friends Greet Her at Her Home.
SHE IS IN GOOD SPIRITS
Speaks Highly of Her Social Life in Washington and of Congressional Helpers.
Washington Place was the scene yesterday of considerable excitement occasioned by the return of Liliuokalani to her residence. All day long a procession of visitors, Hawaiians and foreigners, streamed in and out of the residence of the former Queen.
The news of the arrival of Liliuokalani came as a surprise to her friends, who expected her to arrive by the Australia tomorrow morning. Preparations for her formal reception at the dock were under way for some time, and at midnight landing on a steamer, she stepped out. However, bright and early in the morning, she was met by a large number of her friends, and the former sovereign, Leis and floral tributes of every description poured in upon her residence until every room in the building was heaped up with gifts.
Her return to Honolulu had a very beneficial effect. Her embonpoint was restored and she is now possessed of a slighter figure than when she was in Honolulu in 1893. The effect of her hair a la pompadour is also becoming. In fact the ex-Queen is much better than formerly, and her serious thoughts as to the matter which has been ascribed to her at the health.
Speaking with reference to her long stay in Washington, Liliuokalani expressed herself as charmed and fascinated by the society of the gay capital. It will probably make still another year there. This, however, depends entirely on the wishes of her physician. In English, in whose hands she has placed herself, with ready acquiescence she demands as far as they relate to the health.
She speaks highly of her social life in Washington, and says she was received with kindness and respect wherever she made an appearance. Her Senators and Representatives were lavish in their attentions to Liliuokalani, and her impressions of Americans through this standpoint are the most favorable. As to the failure of Congress to make an appropriation for her, she feels that her Congressional friends made a hard fight, and she states she feels no resentment at not being recognized by the entire Congress in the matter. Her friends, she states, were strong friends, and she made every effort possible to assist in the passage.
Having become one of the fashionable throng of Washington, the ex-

It is unlikely that a formal reception will be held at Washington Place, but a luau will be given there, probably today. Liliuokalani is not disposed to receive formally, preferring at this day to dispense with the stiffness of a formal reception. She intends to rest quietly during her sojourn here, and do all that the dictates of a desire for good health demand.
Institute Benefit.
Ernest Hogan's funny folks played to a $700 audience at the Hawaiian Opera House last evening. The Young Hawaiians Institute will be a large gainer by the successful performance and the minstrels will leave Honolulu with the alohas of the Hawaiians whom they so ably entertained. The house was a good humored one, and encored every number on the program. Hogan was at his best and highly elated at the warm welcome. Both the promoters and the players are deserving of credit for the interesting performance given. Outside talent assisted in swelling the program and was as vociferously received as the professional members of the minstrel troupe.
TENANTS ORDERED FROM A PEST HOLE
Board of Health Forced to Eject Occupants of a Filthy Tenement.
Yesterday Dr. Garvin, the Executive Officer of the Board of Health, accompanied by an Advertiser reporter, visited a certain filthy tenement on King street, on the makai side, just below Lailua street, and ordered the tenants to vacate them.
The owner has been argued with and notified and brought to law without any beneficial results. He was fined $20 in the Police Court for having his premises in an insanitary condition, but the case was appealed and he was fined only $1 in the Circuit Court. This discourages the Board of Health and the fight to keep Honolulu clean and healthful is an exceedingly hard and thankless one.
The building is pestilential and back of it "runs" a semi-stagnant stream or ditch, supposed to carry away the waste water of the tenement. It carries part of it away, very slowly, to what was once a taro patch. The taro patch is on another man's property and is in itself a danger.
Much of the kitchen refuse from the tenement above described is thrown out on the ground. The ditch looks more like a cess-pool stretched out, than anything else. The closets are an indescribable shame and a disgrace to the landlord. They could not possibly be in a more insanitary condition.
These premises are most favorable to the production of the germs of pestilence. The Board of Health has done everything in its power to remedy the evil but it is evident that it will take the arm of the law, energetically moved, and public indignation to make any impression on the owner of the property. The tenants of this tenement have been ordered to vacate as the Board of Health has been condemned by the Board of Health as unfit for human habitation.

ENDEAVOR CONVENTION
Edifying Exercises at Central Union.
OFFICERS ARE ELECTED
Devotional Exercises Participated in By Scores of Young Men and Women.
The Fifth Hawaiian Christian Endeavor Convention met yesterday morning at 6:30 o'clock for early prayer meeting, and concluded its exercises last evening in the large auditorium of the church with a fine program of addresses, songs and presentation of a "badge banner." The officers for the ensuing year were chosen, together with those for the Honolulu Local Christian Endeavor Union.
The officers elected for the Local Christian Endeavor Union were: President, A. J. Coats; vice president, D. L. Naone; secretary, Miss Ada R. Whitney; treasurer, W. Templeton; superintendent of Junior work, Rev. Mr. Percy of Kamehameha Schools.
The Local Union is organized to bind the various young people's societies in Honolulu in fraternal feeling and to carry on the Endeavor work to better advantage. The constitution of the Union was also adopted.
A Large Number Present.
A large audience was present, representatives from all the Endeavor societies of the islands being at the church. Mills Institute sent a number of young Chinese boys, Kawaiahao Seminary a large delegation of girls; the Japanese school was represented by a long line of little Japanese boys. The Japanese Y. M. C. A., lately organized, was present by a representative delegation. Kaumakapili Church, Palama Chapel and Kawaiahao Church Endeavor societies were present, while a large number of the members of the Evangelical Association attended. The latter were mostly Hawaiians who have been meeting at Kawaiahao Church during their visit in Honolulu.
The pulpit was artistically decorated with scrolls of flowers. The Christian Endeavor banner, composed of the Hawaiian flag and a silken strip on which was embroidered in large letters "Hawaii," occupied a central position on the platform. On it were the various Endeavor badges of other cities which have been exchanged during conventions.
Addresses were given by Rev. E. S. Timoteo of Kaumakapili Church, Rev. E. B. Turner, Mills Institute; Rev. A. E. Cory, Christian Church, and Lyle A. Dickey, who made the speech in connection with the presentation of the badge banner.
The following is the program of exercises as observed:
6:30 a. m.—Early prayer meeting, led by H. K. Meemano, of Ewa C. E. Society, and Miss Ethel A. Chamberlain, of the Epworth League.

FENIANS IN CANADA.
Men Who Tried to Blow Up the Welland Canal.
NEW YORK, May 23.—A special to the Herald from Montreal says: The Dominion Government secret service has discovered that Carl Dullman, J. Nolin and John Walsh, convicted of trying to destroy the Welland canal, came to Canada for the express purpose of wreaking vengeance on the colony for having sent troops to South Africa; that they threw up positions at Dublin to do so, and at least two of them are provided with funds by the Clan-na-Gael, which obtained the money through Maud Gonne. As a result of their investigations the Government agents say:
"The explosion was designed as a reprisal against Canada for having sent troops to South Africa."
"The plot was conceived, instigated and carried through by orders of the executive officials of the Clan-na-Gael."
"It was set on foot at the very moment last autumn when all Canada was ringing with enthusiasm over the mobilization of the first contingent sent by the Dominion to participate in a war of the empire."
"The emissaries of the Clan-na-Gael were dispatched from Ireland to America almost simultaneously with the departure of the Sardinian from Quebec."
"The cost of passage of these emissaries of the Clan-na-Gael was defrayed by a subscription organized by Miss Maud Gonne, a young woman who has been designated 'The Irish Joan of Arc,' and who has made several visits to the United States in the interests of the 'physical force' party of Irish extremists."
"The tickets were purchased by Fred. J. Allan, who is said to be the recognized head of the Clan-na-Gael in Dublin, and who has within the last four months been appointed private secretary to the present Lord Mayor of Dublin, Alderman Pile."
"From the time of their landing in America to their arrival in Canada, a few days previous to the explosion and possibly since Walsh and Nolin, at least, were in constant communication with the executive of the Clan-na-Gael and in receipt of moneys from that body."
"The agents do not say that Maud Gonne knew the Welland canal was to be blown up."
